Linda Lange, founder of Life Application Ministries, will be speaking on:

God's Best For You

The Love of God

Linda will be teaching on how to experience God's unconditional love and His complete forgiveness without guilt or condemnation.

Forgiveness

Jesus said, "If you from your heart forgive others, so I will also forgive you." Learning to forgive from your heart is critical to your relationship with Him, ourself and others!

Relationships

How relationships with God, others and yourself play an important role to achieving the relationship we desire with the Lord.

Blocks

You will learn how to identify possible blocks which could be hindering you from experiencing all God has for you.

Other Areas

- Living in truth and the impact on our lives
- Peace and contentment in all situations
- Walking in the Spirit
- Health and healing (including generation disease)
- Effective Prayer and Ministering to others

Linda Lange, published author, minister, teacher, wife, mother and grandmother of four suffered from anxiety, panic attacks, phobias, stress and fear for over thirty years, 18 of those years as a Christian! The Lord brought healing to her life and so in 1996 birthed Life Application Ministries. As a writer, she has put her experiences into several books and workbooks, CD's and DVDs to help others find their healing and freedom. In her easy, kick-back but passionate style, her writings have halped people all over the world gain understanding and truth that has helped them find their freedom. As an international ministry, she ministers through seminars, on-line teleconferences, one-on-one personal and phone ministry, and downloadable teachings she has made available on her website. She invites you to come and discover wonderful revelations for yourself to help you find the freedom you desire, all the while, equipping you to help others.

This conference is free - but a donation is appreciated. Books and materials will be available.
